The Tricks of the Trade.

A circumstance which has just transpired, and which is told by entirely responsible parties, will seem to "point a moral," and throw some light on certain things. There is now in the Penitentiary here, a man named Elliott, who was convicted in Davidson county, (possibly we are mistaken as to the county) of the killing of a man named Harris, and sentenced to the Penitentiary for a term of years. Last week one of his counsel came to the city, to intercede with Gov. Brogden for the pardon of his client. His Excellency was firm in his refusal, but still the lawyer pleaded, and so very persistent was he, that the Governor finally came out freely and told him that he could not pardon the man before the 1st of November, but would do so then.

The inference is plain. Gov. Brogden wishes to be clear of the imputation, from this time until the election, of the indiscriminate pardon of criminals: but as soon as it can be done without injury to the prospects of the party, he will resume the old business. This leads us to predict, speaking after the fashion of the almanacs. about the first of November look out for the release of numerous Penitentrary convicts.

The 1st of October is now set as the time when the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line Railroad will be completed to Hamlet, the junction with the Carolina Central Railroad. Little doubt is entertained that the junc tion will be effected by the time mentioned, unless the weather for the next six weeks, should prove very unfavorable.

The G. W. C. Templar then called the Grand Lodge to order.

The proceedings of Tuesday were read and approved.

The Finance Committee submitted a report, which was adopted. The Committees on Credentials and Constitution submitted reports, which were adopted. The Committee on the organ of the Order-the Spirit of the Age-was increased to two.

The Grand Lodge Guard was allowed an assistant.

Representative H. T. Jordan offered a resolution concerning constitutional questions. Referred.

Representative Z. T. Broughton, and representative W. S. Parker, offered resolutions regarding the Spirit of the Age. Referred to the Committee on the same.

Representative W. G. Matton offered a resolution on constitutional law. Referred. Representative W. J. Edwards offered a resolution with reference to clerks in drug stores. Referred. Rev. Dr. T. H. Pritchard was then introduced and spoke eloquently and touchingly in behalf of the Orphan Asy!um.

The following committee was appeinted to wait on the members and solicit subscriptions: Miss Blanche Fentress, Miss Jennie Albright, Mrs Fannie Ballard, Miss I. H. Bledsoe, and Miss Barringer. The amount raised was $64 75, which was turned over to the proper authorities.

N. B. Broughton, representative to the R. W. Gand Lodge, submitted his report.

The Grand Lodge adjourned until 3 o'eloek. The afternoon session was consumed in reading and discussing the report of the Committee on the State of the Order. Theo. N Ramsay was elected the ensuing year.

The Grand Lodge adjourned until to-day at 9 o'clock.

The Temperance Speaking Last Night. The public temperance speaking at Metropolitan Hall last night, by r presentatives of the Grand Lodge of Good Templars, now in session in this city, was largely attended by an attentive and appreciative audience, composed of all classes of our citizens. The meeting was opened with prayer by Rev. W. B. Harrell, and after a hymn by the choirs of Hickman and Bethel Lodges, P. G. W. C. T. Broughton introduced Rev. W. C. Bowman, of Mitchell coucty, who delivered a forcible and ar umentative address on the evils of intemperance, and portrayed in beautiful pictures the blessings and benefits incident to a life of total abstinence, Mr. Bowman was followed by Mr. B. F. Little, of Mecklenburg, who had "been there" himself, and knew all about "taking off" the tippler, which he did in a manner that amused as well as interested his hearers. At the conclusion of Mr. Little's address, Mr. Moses Gilliam, of Windsor, Bertie county, was introduced, who, notwithstanding he had never attempted to make a speech before in his life, addressed the audience in a logical and impressive speech, and commanded the utmost attention throughout the whole length of his speeches, Mr. Henry Thomas sang a piece, "Only an Armor Bearer," and the exercises closed by a temper ance hymn entitled, "Yield not to Another speaking will be held tonight at the same place, which the public are cordialyl invited to attend.

Nomination in Burke. A letter from the West brings the information that the Democrats of Burke county have nominated for the House, that "good man and true," Maj. Jas. W. Wilson. Our correspondent adds: "Burke thought he was the strongest man, and Burke always goes for the arty." Col. S. McD. Tate, the former member, declined to allow his name to go before the Convention. The news of the nomination of Maj. Wilson will be gratifying intelligence to his many friends throughout the State. He is a mar of fine sense in all matters, and in a l respects an estimable gen-

It is with no little feeling of pride that we acknowledge the receipt of three hundred and (wenty-seven subscribers to the WEEKLY NEWS, and eighty-nine to the Daily, at the hands of the Democrats of North Carolina, during the past four days. It is one of the encouraging signs of the present campign that our party is interested in the circulation of Democratic newspapers. This plan if carried out diligently, will be bound to win iu November next.

Board of County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners was in session at the Court House again, yesterday. A considerable part of the day was spent in the discussion of a matter over which it was finally earned the Board had no jurisdiction. Quite a number of orders were made for the payment of claims held by different parties. The only matter of interest, however, was the settlement made by Sheriff Dunn, of the taxes for the year 1875, his time for tuis settlement having been extended until yesterday. The amounts which he paid over were: the State and county tax for general purposes, $31,250,22; the school tax, $4,900,10 In addition to that already, apportioned, there is an apportionment of $4,000 of the school fund yet to be made and this will be done in a few daysas soon as Capt. W. W. White, Clerk to the Board, can make the figures.

The Bean Shooters

Are the curse of the city. With their slings and beans, they can shoot with theutmost accuracy, and with a force which is wonderful. It is said that they are about to kill all the pigeons in the city, and window panes stand no chance at all. The average small boy can shoot one with such disgusting precision, as to have no se whatever for that time honored institution, the rifle, and the head of one of the policemen of the ity, has recently been used to demonstrate now hard a blow a man can take on the temple without being killed or permanently disabled. A Raleighite declares that the bean shooter is the bane of his life. Discussion of the subject is becoming more and more general, and where talk concerning it abounds, indignation doth much more abound. How long, oh, Cataline! Is there no remedy? Is the power of the judiciary exhausted? Is there no balm in Gilead? Is the law of the land the football of the small boy? We pause for a reply.

To Be Re-Published. Many of the people of the State remember the Live Giraffe, in the palmy days of the ante belium period, and those who do, remember Letters," which occupied each week, a prominent place in its columns. These letters were written by Judge Bunting, of this city, who subsequently collected them all and had them published in book form. He lost all of the books which he had retained. and only recently a friend of his resurrected one and gave it to the Judge. He has determined now to re-publish the book, and from the demands which have been made upon him, is satisfied that he can easily dispose of a sufficient number to defray the expeuse of the publication.

Boisterous Worshippers.

Complaints come in from the Northern portion of the city of the boisterousness of the worshippers in that locality. The exercises begin at 8 o'clock in the evening and continue until midnight, and sometimes later, banishing sleep from eyes and slumber from eyelids. To worship God is one thing; to annoy a whole community from dark to midnight with whoops akin to those of Sitting Bull and his braves, is quite an-

Terrific Storm.

The light storm which p evailed in this city, Tuesday afternoon was very severe in the Northeastern outskirts. The lightning struck and shattered a tombstone in Oakwood Cemetery. NOTES FROM THE GREAT EX-HIBITION.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL COR (ESFONDENT] PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 5, 1876. Mr. Editor :- You have no doubt heard of the very remarkable weather with which the Quaker City has been visited this summer. The first twenty days of July the thermometer ranged from 90° to 103° in the shade, and for two weeks at least, the mortality was second only to that of New York, which was more than eleven bundred deaths per week. Personally, your correspondent was led to compare July, in Philadelphia this year, with the corresponding month last year in Raleigh; and the comparison was very strongly in favor of your city-bringing longings r the cool nights and breezy days which there temper the sun's fiercest

But there has come a change. From the nineties, the thermometer has dropped into the seventies, and one can go about with the usual degree of comfort, and every body is thankful that "the hottest season for eighty-five years," is over at least.

Next to the mortality report, nothing shows the condition of the weather bet'er than the record of daily admission to the heat exhibition (unless it be the editorials in the city journals!) These (not the editorials!) ranged from fifty to sixty thousand in cool weather, per day, down to ten thousand during the heated term. At the present writing, the pay admissions are about twenty-five thous-

Heretofore, as you are aware, the admission has been invariably fifty cents each, but a reduction has lately been made in favor of chool children, who are charged twenty-five cents.

Persons who expect to visit the Centennial should come prepared to remain at least one week, and if pos. sible two; if they expect to take away any but a confused rem mbrance of what they have seen. Some genius, who is nothing if not methodical, has made a calculation in in one of the New York dailies, that nine days would enable a visitor to see everything, and given a plan of procedure, which, I may briefly say, is fallacious. It would require at least nine days to study the plan. to say nothing of following it afterwards. In seeing the exhibitition, it is unnecessary to state that one cannot govern the circumstances, but must be governed by them. It is expected that the number of visitors will increase daily until September; and afterward, for a month at least, that the daily admission will exceed one hundred thousand per day. But let no one fear that there wil not be room enough for all who may come, as Philadelphia can accommodate one hundred and fity thousand daily, and at reasonable prices. The best hotels charge but $3.50 per day for board and lodging, and at boarding houses, plenty of accommodations can be found at from $7 to $20 per week. You may hear of isolated cases of extortion but they are few, and very far between. As a rule, the average American is not in the habit of being duped by any body, and if he pays high prices. "he does so knavingly."

Another thing: there is no danger in Philadelphia to strangers coming here. A man or woman is as safe here from all possible molestation as in any part of the world. Besides, we have an organized police force of one thousand and two hundred men, and a Centennial guard for the espec ial purpose of the Exhibition, of one thousand more. The judges and courts, one hundred, in the few cases that have been brought before them, have shown their determination to tured and ruling of every description | put down crime and criminals, with day for attempted rascality, have been on their way to serve out sentences of long imprisonment, on the next.

There'ore let every one who can afford it, make an effort to visit the Centennial. Its educational influences upon young and old cannot be too highly commended. "To see Naples and die" may do for an Italian ; but to see the Centennial Exhibition and live to tell children and neighbors is something much better. The Aladdin's palace that has sprung so magnificently into existence in the Park, with all its treasures of science and art, makes the wonder of fairy-land grow dim by comparison. A total of one hundred and ninety buildings-one of them nearly one thousand and nine hundred feet in length-have risen under the magic wand of the genius that has evoked them. That genius, let me say, is the spirit of our free institu-

Nowhere in America could another such scene of beauty be witnessed as that in the Centennial grounds. I refer to the appearance outside the buildings. The winding walks-the flower crowned banks-the shaded seats-the brilliant parterre of rare and beautiful plants-and the miniature domes, spires and minarets visible through the overhanging foliage-form a magnificent picture.

Most of the work of the Judges of the Jury award has been completed. Their reports embrace the recommendation for premiums, but before being made public must be approved by the Centennial Commission, which body does not meet till September. The announcement of premiums will not probably be made before October. From the twentieth of August till the fifth of September we are to have the International Regatta under the auspecies of the U. S. Centennial Commission. Great interest i- being felt in regard to it, and it promises to be the great event of the Exhibition. More than seventy-five entries have already been made from all parts of the country and from Europe. Some of the crews have already arrived and the amount of muscle daily developing is supposed

A portion of the National Guard of Pennsylvania, numbering some thousands, arrived in the Park yesterday, and went into camp. As an item of interest to railroad men, I may mention that one train on the Pennsyslvania Road brought five thousand. There were 110 cars, in eleven sections-probably the longest train ever run on any rad. JUAN LEWIS. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

A Rousing Time at Company Shops. COMPANY SHOPS, N. C.,) Aug. 8, 1876.

Mr. Editor:-Wednesday night, July 26th, the citizens of Company Shops organized a Tilden and Vance Club with Dr. J. A. Moore, President : James Turrentine, Vice-President ; John O. Gant, Treasurer, Dr. W. C. Galloway, Secretary, and R. P. Henry, Sergeant-at-Arms. Since then we have held two meetings, and now number sixty-three members, and at every meeting new names are added. Our meeting to-night was very large, and at least twenty speeches were made. Cheer after cheer greeted the speakers. Those who had never spoken to a public body before gave vent to their feelings in stirring addresses. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. Many who have been affiliating with the Radical party now give their hearty support to Tilden, Vance and the Democratic cause. Our club is composed of the best material in the town, and like the Spartan heroes each man will do his duty for right and liberty. We have entered the contest with a determination to win, and we shal'. I will let you hear from me again, when I shall have more to say.

Democratic Work in Chatham. HAYWOOD, CHATHAM Co., N. C.

August 7th. 1876. Mr. Editor :- If you have space and opportunity, please allow me to say, through your excellent columns, to our Democratic friends who may feel an interest, that "Old Cape Fear Section," alias Cape Fear Township, is fully sensible of the importance o the coming political contest. Saturday morning according to advertisement the good, honest, hard-fisted farmers and mechanics, with their other brethren in politics, came up from their rural homes to the shady groves of Haywood, to organize a Tilden and Vance club. The enthusiasm was equal to the times. All so little delay, that men arrested one | hearts and heads seemed fixed on re- mington street.

formation, liberty, peace and prosperity to our once grand and glorious old country. The club was called to order by Capt. L. R. Exline, the Vice-President in the township, of the county club, with some brief but very appropriate remarks; after which he appointed Capt. E. Bryar, President, pro tem, and T. M. Cross, Secretary, pro tem. The club was then duly organized and the followng permanent officers were elected viz: Capt. L. R Exline, President T. M. Cross, Secretary, and Trea-urer, and Messrs. M. J. Boyd, W. A. Lawrence, A. M. Yarborough, Cary Howard, W. S. Gueter, and J. H. Farrar, Vice-Presidents and Executive Cmomittee. At a proper time the house made repeated calls of "Rencher!" "Renher!" in response to which Mr Rencher entertained the c.ub for about half an hour with a speech forcible, logical argumentative, and 'to the point," touching chiefly up n the constitutional amendments.

Our club (the Cape Fear Tilden and Vance Club) now numbers nearly 200, and doubtless will soon number 250. Let it be remembered this is our first meeting. We can pre-dict even now that "Old Chatham" will show her patriotism in the coming contest, to be made of stuff "sterner than gun-powder or bunt-ing." We are diligently searching the ranks of the Radicals gathering up the strayed ones of our race, and indulge the hope that ere November has rolled her mighty seventh'round, there will not be one pure drop or Auglo-Saxon blood left to advocate the cause of the dishonest one. Radical Speaking at Greensboro Crowd Going to Winston to Hear Vance.

GREENSBORO, N. C. Aug. 8, '76. Mr Editor :- I have not written to you for nearly two weeks, but my reason for not doing so, is not be cause the Democrats here do not need enlivenment, nor because the Radicals have ceased their lying and deviltry. It is only eight or ten days since, that Mr. Tourgee, the pension agent, and well known here, addressed a large crowd of negroes in the court house. A few white Radicals were present, and a very small number of Conservative whites with the above named, composed the crowd.

Mr. Tourgee said, that "Republicans are the cream of the old Whig and Democratic parties," and "the Lord nor the Devil could rule so large a nation" at the time he spoke of; but "if something had not been done the world would have come to an end." He told his audience, the reason it required 94,000 Radical revenue marshals, deputies and nosers, was because the Democrats made all the whiskey and tobacco, acknowledging that the Rads are non-producers and lived on what could steal, or "confiscate" after nosing from the Democrats He also made some remarks about General Leach's house; said "a house is a good thing, a nice thing for a man to have." I think decidedly like him in that one particular, but think a man can better appreciate a house which he has labored honestly to ouild; all do not procure their houses in this way. It is not out o place to say right at this point that one, Mr. White, Radical, and postmaster at Greensboro, is building a residence which I suppose will cest him $3,000 or $4,000. Eleven years ago he came here, not in affluence, certainly. I suppose he could not have raised $500 in cash at that time; Last Thursday night Jim Boyd traitor ku klux, made what the Rads announce "a speech." I do not be lieve the citizens of Greensboro were ever more grossly insulted than on that occasion by Mr. Boyd, and others of the same stripe. They issued a hand bill that evening, inviting all persons in favor of reform and honest government to attend a meeting to be addressed by Maj. James M. Boyd and General S. A. Douglas, that night. A number of honest, re spectable white Democrats attended nd while I was present the first speaker had not uttered a single truth. but had lied like one of his fellow partners-in-lying advised to do: lie like h—ll and stick to it," which advice I think they did not need. You have had a letter from another correspondent here on K K. Boyd's speech, truthfully and ably stating his talk, hence the subject does no need any further reporting by any only eight thousand majority at the poils; and they carry the State by thirty thousand majority. Why can't we. with our SIXTY THOUSAND white m jority, carry North Carolina by at least twenty-five thousand?

So FAR, the Democratic nominations for the Legislature have been admirable. A splendid Democratic General Assembly will gather in the Capitol at the next session. Such men as Skinner, Latham, Jarvis, in the East; Thomas, Cunningham, Mc Gebee, Graham, and Parish, and others, in the middle section; and in the West, York, Moore, Shotwell, and others, will give us a Legislature composed of men of talent, wisdom and earnest patriotism.

T. B. KEOGH, the carpet-bag Republican chief of this State, is at Washington, as we learn over the wires, expostulating against the removal of troops from the South. After the soubbing Governor Chamberlain received we should bave thought that no other I epublican would go and, in like manner, make an ass of himself. Colonel Keogh knows as well as we do that troop. are not needed here to secure a a fair election, and that the whole country can see straight through his designs. So the Hon. William A. Smith refused to answer the Committee's question, because " his answer might lead to information that would crim-inate him." The meaning of this word criminate is to show one to be a criminal -a violator of the laws of his country, and deserving the lash of Justice. Maj. Smith's admission, therefore, is to the effect that he was guilty of an act which, if made known. would have subjected him to crimi-

made the removal of the grop of the lessee without notice, a misd meanor -a criminal offence, punishable by indictment.

The Democratic Legislature of 1874 '75, amended this law in some particulars, such as were suggested by sound reason and justice between man and man.

They amended the clause making the removal of crops by lessee a misdemeanor, increasing the time of notice from three to five days.

They also gave verbal agreements the same benefits under this act as written agreements-a convenience to both landlord and tenant, leaving everybody, croppers as well as owners of lands, free to make their agree-in perfection, a negro Legislature passed an act similar to ours, as we are informed, for the secur ty of the landlord.

In the light of these facts, what becomes of the denunciations of the Republicans? It is the merest claptrap and balderdash; contrived for the mean, low, demagogical purpose of deceiving ignoraut men, and arousing the prejudices of tenants, lessees, or croppers, against the owners of

ONE QUESTION .- TWO ANSWERS.

Before the Committee of the Legislature of 1871-'72, appointed to investigate the lease of the North Carolina R. R. Co., Hou. William A. Smith. then President of the North Carolina Road, was asked in substance if anybody had been bribed in the procurement of that lease.

He replied "that he declined to anwer, as the answer might criminate him, or lead to information that would criminate him."

That was his reason, then, for refusing to "tell the tale." Two years later, in 1874, in his notorious letter to the General Assembly, he said: "I was called before that Committee, of which Graham and Dr. Worth were members. I refused to answer their questions, as you knew, because I did not recognize their right to investigate the personal affairs of any man, and not, you know, because of the character

NEW YORK, July 15, 1876. My DEAR SIR : - Your letter of the 6th instant, I did not receive until my return to the city, having been absent for several days. In view of this you will understand why I have not answered yours before now. I will give you my opinion fraukly and unreservedly on the condition of matters political in this great city. Before the nomination of Tilden and Hendricks there was a very bitter teeling against the former gentlemen arising out of an impression which generally prevailed that he was some what indifferent to the wants of the political organization which was ins rumental in nominating him for Governor, and subsequently helping to elect him. I have the honor to inform you that this feeling is entirely allayed There is an universal sentiment among our people to eschew their former disappointments, and to cest away feelings that they enterta ned, and to work harmoniously in secord for the success of the candi-

Hendricks, nomination is decidedly popular, and it is very fortunate for us that he was nominated and consented to accept. I feel sanguine that we will carry the city of New York, by at least 50,0 0 majority, and as you know the tate outside of the city is about equally balanced in a comparative sense, this gives the State to us by this large majority. There is another regson which prevails among the people, and that is a general desire for a change of the Federal administration. Our people feel that there will be no change in business for the better until the Democratic party succeeds to power. I am pleased to find that you are still smong the living of the land and that you are just as enthusiastic as ever in behalf of the Democratic party. I trust that you and I both will be spared to congratulate each other on the success of the great political battle which is about to be fought. Yours very truly,

JOHN KELLY. To Appleton Oaksmith, Esq., Ho lywood, Carter t County, N. C.

Fashionable Love at Saratoga. (From the Philadelphia Times.)

There is little love now-a-days It is found to be a poor paying investment and the youth of our cities take little stock in it. There are any number of fashio able women here who have sold their youth and charms for some old man's gold. This class always frequent this gay American spa, and you will find them at Brighton and Ems, and all over the European continent. Their aim in life is pleasure, and so they wander, for this bright delus on is ever before the dazzled eye of its followers. At the States is a very noticeable lady of this class-a lady with the cold face of a marble, and gray eyes that darken with passion and flash with fascination. She moves with the grace of a Juno and converses with the charm of a De Stael. She is coursed in high places, and is a queen of the fashionable world. Only a brief period ago she was unknown and unloved. On the return voyage from Europe she met the man whom she madeherfa'e-a man who has almost reached the three score and ten years of man's short, unsatisfactory life-a man well known in the great marts of trade and in the great centres of fashion. Twice before had he tasted the sweets and bitters of matrimony, but not until this charmer came did he really know what love was, he says. She pets and cajoles the old gentleman and luxuriates in his fortune and in his princely home. From plain dresses and a plain life she swept into velvers and gems and position; and with this loveless heart and this glittering life is not a woman of her kind rai pier than she would be as the wife of a poor man who could give her nothing but love and medicernty?

Revenue Outrages. [Statesville Landmark]

Dr. Mott is Collector of Internal Revenue in this District. He made a partial canvass of the county with the candidates for the Legislature for the purpose of vindicating the Revenue laws and their administration. The cause of the signal failure of his mission may not have occurred to the doctor. The following from a Gaston county correspondent explains the trouble:

"The Revenues have been scouring this county with a squad of soldiers, arresting citizens and confining them in old barns, under guard, three and four days, refusing them a trial or bail, and without anything to est. I give you the words of one of the prisoners; I was put in an old barn that contained nothing but filth and fleas, and if dogs would cat what they give me to eat I would kill mine and deny that I ever owned one." The people will hold the doctor's party responsible for this nagrant outrage upon the Constitution in November.

What, men who enjoy the proud right of American citizenship,—sov-ERIGNS, arrested by soldiers in a time of profound peace, confined in old barus, denied trial or bail and treated like bruies. If our correspondent writes the truth a great outrage has been perpetrated upon these prisoners.

New York Herald: We think that the control of the whole Indian nation should be turned over to the army. William Tecumseh Sherman and Phillip H. Sheridan are the true peace commissioners for the settlement of this appalling problem.

On the outside of Wirksworth Church in Derbyshire, Eugland, under the west window, is this epitaph: "Phillip Shalicross, an emineat Quilldriver to the Attorneys of this Town. Died 1787, aged 67. Viewing Phillip in a moral light, the most prominent and remarkable features in his character were his real and invincible attachment to dogs and cats, and his unbounded benevolence toward them as well as toward his fellow creatures."

Colorado's Advent into the Union.

With big head letters, crowned by a rooster rampart, the Georgetown (Col.) Miner thus glorifies over the vote in favor of the State Constitu-

Erect, you bet!-Walk into my parlor, is Uncle Sam's greeting-Good bye, old carpet-bag-Sovereigns, assume your rights-

Colorado, youngest, fairest State! In the Union cluster Number 38! Step to the front-assume your station,

Equal to that of any in the nation !-No more Government wards in ours -We can vote in Congress now-Ain't you migh'y glad you're out of the wilderness—Good bye, Wyoming, New Mexico, Arizona, Montana, Utah, Dakota and Washing'ou—We leave your pleasant company and join a bigger and better crowd.

Colorado drops short dresses, And receives the warm caresses, Of her Uncle Samuel now On her white and radiant brow Robed in golden vesture-grand As any sister in the land : Silver chaplets crown her head As she walks with stately tread To assume her proper place— Peer of any in the race!

North Carolina Talent Abroad.

[Wilson Advance.] The press of Alabama speaks in exalted terms of a new candidate for fame in the literary world, in the person of Miss Ora Arrington. of Sumpter county. Alabama. This young and gilted authoress, only sixteen years of age. is the grand daughter of General Joseph Arrington, and daughter of Mr, Andrew Arring-ton, who removed from Nash county to Alabama several years ago. Her first production which el cits so much praise from the press, is a novel of 362 pages, entitled Leona; or Shadows and Sunbeams:

"There is no sunshine that hath not its shade, Nor shadow that the sunshine hath not made, There is no cherished comfort of the heart, That doth not own its cheerful counter-

Ac's of 1868-69, Chapter 156, Sec. 15, Page 350, may be found the follow ing law, making removal of crop by 1 ssee without notice, a misdemeanor: Any tenant of land, under a lease giving the lessor a share of the crop as rent, or giving the lessor a lien on the crop as security for the rent, or for the performance of any stipulation in the lease; and any person with knowledge of said lien, under the license or au hority of such tenant, who shall remove any part of the crip from such land without the consent of the lessor and without having given the lessor or his agent, if to be found on the demised premises or within five miles thereof, three days notice, of such intended removal, and before satisfying all lieus on said crop, SHALL BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR.

> The Kentucky Election. [N. Y. World.]

The returns from Kentucky report Democratic gains throughout the State, notably in the cities of Lexington and Paris, and in Jessamine County, which have heretofore been Republican. The election was only for county officers, but the Demo-eratic gains are significant, because the Republicans in Kentucky ordinarily concentrate their efforts upon the local contests, being hopeless of ever carrying the State. Mr. Henry Watterson, editor of the Courier Jour nal, was elected by an overwhelming majority to fill out the unexpired term of Edward Parsons, deceased, in Congress, having practically no opposition. An interesting fact in the election was the defeat of a grandson of Henry Clay, who offered himself as a candidate for a minor office in Louisville.

"Live within your income," said Samuel J. Tilden to the Secretary of the Treasury in 1865; "there is no royal road for a Government more than for an individual or a corporation." Had this advice been heeded the people would not have been in their impoverished and uncertain condition to-day.

Norfolk Ledger: It is with deep regret that we record to-day the death of Mr. James W. Lewellen, brother of our editor in-chief, and one of the best known and oldest journalists in the State. He died in Richmond on Saturday afternoon after a long and painful sickness. Until about a year ago he was connected with the Richmond Whiq as a partner.

The aged and venerable inflationist, Great-gran I father Peter Cooper, is accustomed to carry with him to public meetings an India rubber bag, ingeniously devised so that be cau blow it into the proportions of a cushion on which to rest his weary body. But, much as we respect the old philanthropist, we doubt if this rubber bag will prove the woolsack on which he will sit at the White House. Still, everybody who believes that the true way to make money is to print it should vote for Peter Cooper.

CONGRESS.

Conference Report -- The House Legislative Conference Unable to Agree--Villainous Assertion From Patterson---Adjournment Probable Next Monday--Political De-

House. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9. Senate.-During the morning hour the Senate passed a number of bills which were on the calendar.

Mr. Window, from the conference committee on the Legislative, Executive and Indian appropriation bill reported that the committee had been unable to agree, and addressed the Senate at length as to the condition of the bill, stating that the committee had agreed upon every point, except as to compensation of the President of the U.S. and of Representatives and Senators in Congress. He moved that a new conference be authorized, and expressed the opinion that the committee would be able to agree finally.

Conger and Dorrell have concluded to make a minority report on the New Orleans Federal officers, and will be ready to report to-morrow.

The House bill allowing iron ships of the Pacific Steamship Co. to carry the mail from San Francisco to China passed.

The Legislative Conference reported unable to agree. The Senate insisted and a new conference was appointed. They will report concurrence on the part of the House tomorrow, and the bill will pass.

The Hamburg document debate was resumed. Patterson closed his speech by declaring that there had be-n more men murdered in the South for opinion's sake, since the war, than were killed on the Federal side in any battle during the war.

Mr. Eaton, of Connecticut, said he had the pleasure of stating, yesterday, that the election in Alabama on Monday, was quiet. Since then he had received a telegram from the Chairman of the State Democratic Committee, announcing that the election throughout the State was fair, and there was not a complaint of intimidation.

Mr. Spencer, of Alabama, said there were counties in the State heretofore Republican, which went Democratic on Monday, and the reason of it was that colored men were intimidated Both Houses are in session tonight. An adjournment is probable on Monday,

House.-The bill giving $30 per month to the wife of Captain Yates who was killed with Custer, passed.

Political debate was resumed. Hoar, of Massachusetts, commenced by commenting on Mr. Lamar's speech, which he said, however covered in public by philosophic guise, or however concealed by calmness or apparent impartiality, was in full accord with the uniform tone of the Democratic press, North and South, and in full accord with the uniform current of speech that prevailed among that gentleman's colleagues, whenever questions relating to the position of the South had arrisen. That speech, he said, was a bitter invective against the government under which the gentleman lived, and of whose magnamity that gentleman was a conspicuous instance. He trusted that the people of the North would read that speech and would judge by it of the expediency of committing the government to the Democratic party. In proof of the public corruption during the administration of Washington, John some illustrious instances.

Hocker, of Mississippi followed. His speech was much praised. He said that he had yet to hear one man, woman or child in Mississippi express a desire that the condition of the colored race should again be changed. The people of the South accepted that result with the frankness and sincerity with which they had accepted the other results of the war. They had imperiled all to save their honor; they had lost all when the war closed, but they were prepared to stand by the result, while the Republican politicians who shouldered no musket and drew no sword, wanted to keep alive the animosity. the bloodshed, the rankling and the bitter spirit of the war for the purpose of stirring up animosity between the Southern whites and blacks for political purposes. They attempted to do so by sending ennissaries there who, instead of knocking at the front door and asking acquaintance, stole in at the back gate and at midnight held their greeting with the colored race, and told them they would again be thrown into slavery if they voted the Democrat c ticket. But now things were changing, and the colored men were beginning to find who were their friends, and they had helped to roll up a Democratic majority of thirty thousand in Alabama. There was no friend of the colored race truer or more honest than their old masters.

Smalls, of South Carolina-That

s not so! Hooker-That is your opinion. I never expected that any white politician or any colored politician would acknowledge it.

Smalls-If you keep the Ku Klux back not one will vote the Democratic ticket.

Hooker-They have voted it in my State and will do it again.

Smalls-If you withdraw the Ku Klux they will not.

Hooker-That is all nonsense, and the country knows it is nonsense. He went on to say there was no such thing as intimidation in Mississippi and that in many counties of that State there were colored Democratic clubs. When any outrage did occur, every good citizen in the State reproved it as clearly and as unequivocally and as boldly as any Northern man. Did gentlemen on the Republican side think there was no common feeling of humanity in the South? If that were so, the mere question of interest would forbid Southern men taking their shot guns and shooting the colored man down. It was a slander on both poces. If they were left alone, as in Alabama and Georgia, the relations of the two races would adjust themselves on a just foundation. Any party which undertook to use one race for the oppression of the other was guilty of an inhumanity fouler

THE INDIAN WAR.

Crook and Merritt United, and Assuming the Aggressive-The Sioux Thought to be Suffering --Terry not Heard From, &c. &c.

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 9 .- A special dispatch to the Tribune from the Big Horn expedition on Goose Creek, via Fort Fetterman, says General Merritt, with his force, found General Crook yesterday, and they are now ready for aggressive action. This united column has 2,100 fighting men. Under the new organization, General Merritt ranks as officer of cavalry, and Colonel Chambers commander of infantry. The entire colump, with pack trains, will move at once toward Tongue River. with its three hundred pack mules, one bundred and fifty thousand rounds of ammunition, twenty-five thousand rations, and no forage. This is the lightest marching condition. Men and horses are in the finest possible trim.

Scouting parties have discovered a large, fresh trail of Sioux leading toward Lower Tongue and Powder rivers. It is believed the savages are in need of victuals, as picked carcasses of dogs are found around their camps. They have fired prairies to ruin pasturage and render cavalry useless.

General Terry has not been heard from for a month. He is believed to have nearly 2,000 men.

General Crock made a speech to his men, yesterday, representing the necessity of each doing his best.

A special to the Tribune from St. Paul says a wild report gained credence to-day that General Terry had met Sitting Bull and been worsted. It could not be traced to any reliable source, but shows that the opinion is general that the Indians have a superior force.

WASHINGTON.

His Cousin--Florida Congressmen

Absent. WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.-The Harrison running for Governor of Indiana, is cousin to Harrison who kept the Blaine secret so long.

Conover, Purman, and Gleason, with a large Florida delegation, leave homeward to-day. They expect to effect a compromise on the Gubernatorial question. The National Republican Executive Committee have had the matter under consideration, and have made suggestions which they say will undoubtedly be adopted, leaving the field free to Senator Conover.
